40. Lala Rokh

This "tranquil" "little hideaway" on Beacon Hill temps with the "exotic aromas" and "transporting" tastes of "phenominal" Persian cuisine, served in "sophisticated" rooms that exude a "romantic" ambiance; along with "gracious" owners who "really care" and "knowledgeable" servers, it's no surprise that for its genre it's "one of the best in the country."

us that many of the restaurants on the above list are among the most expensive, but Bostonians also love a good deal. Were popularity calibrated to price, we think that a number of other restaurants would join the ranks. Thus, we have listed over 140 Best Buys on pages 18-19.
